<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Every student who appeals for reinstatement of financial aid eligibility must meet with their success coach to develop an academic plan that will ultimately result in meeting satisfactory academic progress standards. • If your appeal is approved, you may modify your plan for future sessions with approval of your success coach and the Financial Aid Office. Be sure to meet with your success coach if you do not believe you can meet the terms of the plan 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • You must adhere to the plan each and every session. Any deviation (including withdrawals) will make this plan void and make you ineligible for financial aid. • Your plan may not exceed four (4) sessions if your academic deficiency is due to low CUM GPA or Completion Rate. If related to Maximum Time Frame Reached, you can take more time but must enroll only in courses required for graduation. • The Financial Aid Office will monitor your satisfactory academic progress at the end of each semester.
